

CODE OF ETHICS AND BUSINESS CONDUCT
FOR
MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of GLOBAL INSURANCE LIMITED (the “company”) has adopted this Code of Ethics and Business Conduct for Members of the Board of Directors. This Code is intended to focus on the Board and each Director on areas of ethical risk, provide guidance to Directors to help them recognize and deal with ethical issues, provide mechanisms to report unethical conduct and help foster a culture of honesty and accountability. Each Director should carefully review, be familiar with and follow this Code.

This Code is intended to serve as a source of guiding principles for Directors. Directors should raise questions about particular circumstances involving any director that may implicate one or more of the provisions of this Code. The Company Secretary who will discuss such questions, as appropriate, with the Chairman of the Board, the Chairman of the Corporate Governance Committee and /or other inside or outside legal counsel. The Board will not permit any waiver of this Code for any director.

Directors should read this Code in conjunction with the Company’s Code of Ethics and Business conduct applicable to the Company’s employees.

(A) Conflict of Interest:

Directors should avoid any conflict of interest as described below between the director and the company. Any situation that involves or may reasonably be expected to involve a conflict of interest with the Company should be disclosed promptly to the Company Secretary. The Company Secretary will discuss such matters with the chairman of the Board for evaluation and appropriate resolution, which may include the requested resignation of the director, may be adopted by the Board.

If a director has a personal interest in a matter, the director will disclose the interest to the full Board of Directors for discussion or deliberation and the director shall excuse him or herself from participation in the discussion, and will not vote on the matter. Personal interest may include commercial, industrial, banking, consulting, legal, accounting, charitable, and financial relationship, among others.

A “conflict of interest” can occur when a director’s personal interest interferes or may appear to interfere in any way with- the interest of the company as a whole. Conflicts of interest may also arise when a director or a member of his or her immediate family receives personal benefit outside of the compensation or reimbursement program approved by the board as a result of his or her position as a director of the company. This Code does not attempt to describe all possible conflict of interest that could develop. Some of the more common conflicts, which director must avoid, however, are mentioned below.

(i) Relationship of the Company with third parties:

Directors should not engage in any conduct or activities that are inconsistent with the company’s best interests or that disrupt or impair the Company’s relationship with any person or entity with which the Company has entered into, or propose to enter into a business or contractual relationship. This prohibition includes any such third parties related to potential corporate opportunities as discussed further in section (B).
